

DEATH OF ALEX ORMOND.

According to the El Paso Times news reached that city Saturday that Alex Ormond, for many years a member of the volunteer fire department and of the police force, died several days previous at San Borja, Chihuahua. He had been prospecting in the state of Chihuahua, near the Senora line, and was taken ill out in the mountains. The direct cause of death was said to have been a fever contracted in the mountains of western Chihuahua.

Ormond was well known here and had many friends. About two years ago he was watchman for the railroad company, previous to which he had charge of the Pfaff saloon at Capitan.
